

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2707 - HB 3054

February 14, 2004

SUMMARY OF BILL: Makes building plans of K-12 educational facilities in the possession of a governmental entity, access to which would facilitate unlawful access to or terrorist acts against the building and its occupants, confidential and not subject to public disclosure.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

MINIMAL

Estimate assumes:

- the bill is aimed at preventing unlawful access to, or terrorist acts against, school buildings.
- no fiscal impact on the State since the Department of Education does not maintain building plans for K-12 schools. This responsibility of the Department of Education was phased out in the early 1990s.
- minimal fiscal impact to the local school systems since the systems rarely receive requests for school building plans. Public requests for these types of documents currently fall under the Public Records Act, under which a school system may ask a requesting party to pay printing or copying costs.
